

Exchange Students

Course: Specialty - International Relations

Admission requirements for bachelor's programs

- Provide certification of the following level of French: B2
- Provide certification of the following level of English: B2
- Include the following documents with the Application Form:
 - Certificate of French level C1
 - Certificate of English level B2
 - A CV in French or English
 - A letter of motivation in French
 - Previous academic transcripts
- Be admitted by the faculty of the International Relations specialty

Admission requirements for master's programs

- Provide certification of the following level of French: C1
- Provide certification of the following level of English: B2
- Include the following documents with the Application Form:
 - Certificate of French level C1
 - Certificate of English level B2
 - A CV in French or English
 - A letter of motivation in French
 - Previous academic transcripts
- Be admitted by the faculty of the International Relations specialty
- Be present during the first week of the course, which starts
 - the first week of September in the 1st semester
 - the first week of January in the 2nd semester

Course list

The course catalog for the International Relations specialty is available on the "Formations" page of the International Relations specialty. All of the courses are open to exchange students.

Course: Specialty – International Business

Admission requirements

- Provide certification of the following level of French: C1
- Include the following documents with the Application Form:
 - Certificate of French level C1
 - A CV in French
 - A letter of motivation in French
 - Previous academic transcripts
- Be admitted by the faculty of the International Business specialty

List of courses open to exchange students

Semester 1	Semester 2
Second year of the bachelor's program: CPEA230B: Microeconomics and How Markets Work REIA230B: Introduction to General Economics CPEA230C: Marketing	Second year of the bachelor's program: CPEB230B: Business Organization and Strategy REIB230B: Economic Policies
Third year of the bachelor's program: CPEA330A: Business Law CPEA330C: International Economics 1	Third year of the bachelor's program: CPEB330A: Business Law CPEB330C: International Economics 2

Course: Specialty – International Communication and Training

Admission requirements

- Provide certification of the following level of French: C1
- Include the following documents with the Application Form:
 - Certificate of French level C1
 - A CV in French
 - A letter of motivation in French
 - Previous academic transcripts
- Be admitted by the faculty of the International Communication and Training course

Course list

Only the bachelor's courses are open to exchange students.

The course catalog for the International Communication and Training specialty is available on the "Formations" section of the International Communication and Training specialty page.

Course: Specialty – Language Didactics

Admission requirements

- Provide certification of the following level of French: C1
- Choose only bachelor's courses
- Include the following documents with the Application Form:
 - Certificate of French level C1
 - A CV in French
 - A letter of motivation in French
 - Previous academic transcripts
- Be admitted by the faculty of the Language Didactics course

Course list

Only the bachelor's courses are open to exchange students.

The catalog of bachelor's degree courses for the Language Didactics specialty is available on the "Formations" section of the Language Didactics specialty.

Course: Specialty – Multilingual Natural Language Processing

Admission requirements

- Provide certification of the following level of French: B2
- Include the following documents with the Application Form:
 - Certificate of French level B2
 - A CV in French
 - A letter of motivation in French
 - Previous academic transcripts
- Be admitted by the faculty of the Multilingual Natural Language Processing specialty

Course list

Only the bachelor's courses are open to exchange students. The course catalog for the Multilingual Natural Language Processing specialty is available on the "Formations" page of the Multilingual Natural Language Processing specialty.

Course: Specialty – Master's Degree in Specialized Translation

Admission requirements

- Provide certification of the following level of French: C1
- Include the following documents with the Application Form:
 - Certificate of French level C1
 - A CV in French
 - A letter of motivation in French
 - Previous academic transcripts
- Be admitted by the faculty of the Master's in Specialized Translation
- Be present during the first week of the course that starts the first week in September

Course list

Only the courses of the first semester of the first year of the Master's Program are open to exchange students. The course catalog for the Master's degree in Specialized Translation can be found on the Master's degree in Specialized Translation webpage.

Course: Specialty – Master's Degree in Literary

Admission requirements

- Provide certification of the following level of French: C1
- Include the following documents in the Application Form:
 - Certificate of French level C1
 - A CV in French
 - A letter of motivation in French
 - Previous academic transcripts
- Be admitted by the faculty of the Master's in Literary Translation

Course list

Only the first semester courses are open to exchange students. The course catalog for the Master's degree in Literary Translation is available on the Master's degree in Literary Translation webpage.