Through the presentation of various case studies, this workshop aims to analyze the China’s Belt and Road Initiative since its launch in the middle of the 2010s and to assess the impact of the Covid-19 pandemic and the war on Ukraine on its implementation and development. It is the result of a collaboration between the BRImpact research group (IFRAE/Inalco and D2iA/University of Bordeaux Montaigne and University of La Rochelle) and the Institute of East Asian Studies at the University of Duisburg-Essen.

Organizers:
The BRImpact Research Group (https://brirnet.hypotheses.org), the French Research Institute on East Asia (IFRAE), the European Institute for Chinese Studies (EURICS), and the Institute of East Asian Studies (IN-EAST) at the University of Duisburg-Essen
